

KEYNOTE SPEAKER | BUSINESS AUTHOR | SUCCESS STRATEGIST

GALEN BINGHAM

THE LEADERSHIP STRATEGIST

THERE'S NEVER BEEN A MORE IMPORTANT TIME TO...

Compete on incredible levels. To work together as teams cohesively and creatively.
To drive sales sky high. Or lead with complete passion and purpose.

Galen is a keynote speaker, success strategist, book author, and business consultant. He's also the perfect speaker to call to help your team raise the bar and your organization thrive. Why? Because helping sales and business leaders to become their personal best has been his passion and goal for over 30 years, as he has led sales organizations and advised more than 650 corporate executives, CEOs, and non-profit leaders. He's researched the requirements of success. He's led Fortune 100 companies, run divisions of medium-size companies, and helped to steer start-ups.

What all that experience has taught him? Is that the title, position, geography, organization size, background, or experience level isn't what holds people back. It's the "want-to"—the deep-seeded desire to take your life to an OUTSTANDING level. After earning a BS degree in Business Administration from Southern Nazarene University and an MBA degree from Rice University, he went on to lead successful sales and marketing teams for some of the most recognized brands in the world.

Truly a business and leadership strategist, Galen helps leaders and team illuminate paths to success, identify blind spots that can hinder progress, effectively close generational and cultural divides and meet both opportunities and challenges with the right tools, training, and mindset to thrive in any market.
